

Spring Fair

The tough call of having to postpone the Spring Fair due to wind conditions was made last Friday. The new date is Saturday, 15 December. I thank Jenine and the P&C who now are looking to reorganise for the new date. Please let the P&C know if you are free and can assist on the new date.

Kids In2Uni

Last week our Year 6 students visited the University of Wollongong (Bega Campus) where they had the opportunity to engage in activities around studying at university in the future. It was reported that Bermagui students were 'highly engaged' by one of the staff at the UOW. Well done Year 6!

Professional Learning

Mrs Roche and I are attending a number of schools in Sydney to observe 'Visible Learning' in action today and tomorrow. We will then plan how that would work here at Bermagui Public School to benefit our students. Mr Gill is Relieving Principal in my absence.

2019 Leadership Speeches

Year 5 students who have nominated themselves for a ministry role in Bermagui Public School's 2019 School Parliament will present their speeches to the whole school this Thursday, 29 November at 1pm. We know there is great potential with all of our current Year 5's and we look forward to hearing what each individual nominee believes they have to offer as a Minister or even Prime Minister next year.

Brendan Constable - Principal

Genius Hour

5/6R have begun presenting their Genius Hour projects in class. The philosophy is that students spend an hour a week on a 'passion' project of their choice. They have been working on Genius Hour since last term. Well done to those students who have presented their projects so far.

PBL WINNERS

Congratulations to our PBL award winners last week. It was a double draw week! The students looked great under our new expectation signs. Brydee, Rita and Kendra were our lucky prize winners.

Ticket holders that would like a refund just need to send the ticket/s into the office. Tickets can still be purchased at the school office or via the Skoolbag App.

The P&C Book Stall will be part of the Spring Fair again this year. This is a great chance for you to pass on all those books that you no longer want. Any donations of good quality books can be left at the Canteen on Wednesday or Friday mornings.
